

Join Kresge Library in

Remembering Rosa Parks

Wed. 16th November, 2005

Panel Discussion, 12 noon-1pm, Fishbowl

moderated by Shea Howell – Chair of Rhetoric, Communications & Journalism

Includes Mrs. Park's background and the history of the Civil Rights movement. Each panelist will speak for approximately 5-10 minutes on how her she has impacted them.

Eyes on the Prize - Awakenings, 7pm, Fishbowl

Documentary film covering two events that helped to focus the nation's attention on the rights of black Americans: the 1955 lynching in Mississippi of 14-year-old Emmett Till and the 1955-56 Montgomery, Ala. boycott. Also shows southern race relations at mid-century and witnesses the awakening of individuals to their own courage and power.